DXN USA DISTRIBUTOR WEBSITE REGULATION

Distributors building websites or adding information about DXN into existing websites to promote or sell DXN products are only permitted to state that they are an "authorized distributor" of DXN USA and establish a link that will guide viewers to DXN USA's corporate site.

The website must not display any logo, trademark, picture of Daxen, Inc. or DXN and products. Any text related to or describing the link to www.dxnusa.com must be in strict accordance with specifications approved by Daxen, Inc.

DXN authorised distributor

Any website that would like links to DXN USA's corporate site must submit application and be approved by Daxen, Inc. prior to posting the link. Applications can be found at <http://www.dxnusa.com/forms/application.pdf>

Upon approval by Daxen, Inc. to post a link on the distributor website, Daxen will provide the applicant detailed instructions to establish a link.

Distributor website that references Daxen, Inc., its products or links to www.dxnusa.com is NOT permitted to make unsubstantiated income or product claims.

Distributor website should NOT make it appear that it is Daxen, Inc.'s corporate site, subsidiary site, and member site or that the site is in any way sanctioned or endorsed by the company.

All sites that link to www.dxnusa.com must clearly state that it is operated by an Independent Distributor.

Once the distributor website successfully establishes the link to www.dxnusa.com, all transactions conducted through the distributor link will automatically be registered. All accounting and accumulation of points shall be duly recorded and calculated in accordance to the genealogy of the distributor. If a new member registers for membership via the link on the distributor website, he/she will automatically be signed under the distributor's genealogy. The PV and BV of any product order through the distributor link, shall be duly recorded, and automatically generated to the genealogy of the distributor.

Daxen reserves the right to terminate any links to www.dxnusa.com if content and specifications are different from the format and text consented by Daxen, Inc., or in violation of DXN USA's distributor website regulation.

Distributor websites must not be in violation of DXN'S Distributor policies and Procedures. Any efforts of cross-recruiting, website and intellectual property misuse and misrepresentation, unlawful use of tradename and misleading advertising will not be permitted.
